Text:

El Emir Abdelkader Ibn Muhieddine Al Hassani was an Algerian Islamic scholar, writer, poet, political leader and military warrior.

This great hero was born on September 06th, 1808 in Guetna near Mascara where he grew up and learnt the holy Quran as well as other subjects. This brave leader founded the Modern Algerian State and led the Algerian struggle against the French domination in the 19th century. He won many battles against the French army. Among his most famous battles are: "The Battle of Maktaa", "the Battle of sig", and "The Battle of Sidi Brahim". He defended his land and protected the Algerian values, language and religion to keep the Algerians unified against their enemy. He wrote many books like the book of "Call to the Intelligent, Warning to the Indifferent" in 1855 and a book on "The Arabian Horse". He died on May 26th, 1883 in Damascus, Syria at the age of seventy four.

This national leader was respected by all. Present-day, Algerians consider him to be the greatest hero of their people.
